3. The Joint Secretary to Government, General Administration (Accommodation) Department, A.P. Secretariat, Hyderabad

.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a Writ of Mandamus or any other appropriate Writ, order or direction, declaring the action of the respondents for not extending the time for vacating the premises bearing Quarter No. MC 101, Malakpet Colony, Hyderabad as requested by the petitioner vide his representation dt 12-12-2003 is illegal, arbitrary and violation of Principal of natural justice and consequently direct the respondents to permit the petitioner to stay in the same premises.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.JELLELLA RAJESWAR RAO

Counsel for the Respondent Nos:1 to 3 GP FOR GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

The Court at the stage of admission, made the following :

ORDER:

For not extending the time for vacating the premises bearing Quarter No.MC-101, Malakpet colony, Hyderabad, the present writ petition is filed.

The petitioner worked as a Head Master in the Government School. Though he retired from service on 30.6.2004, he is not vacating the quarter. He made a representation to the 1st respondent stating that his wife underwent hysterectomy operation and therefore he may be continued for a period of four months in the said quarter. Accordingly, permission has been accorded with a specific direction to vacate the quarter on or before 31.12.2004.

There is no right for the petitioner to remain in the quarter since a reasonable opportunity for retention of the quarter beyond 27.10.2004 is considered and sanctioned by the 1st respondent. There is no violation of any right of the petitioner whatsoever.

Hence, the writ petition is devoid of merit and the same is dismissed at the stage of admission. No order as to costs.
